

Ada Or Ardor A Family Chronicle

Ada Or Ardor A Family Chronicle - Ada, or Ardor: A Family Chronicle is a novel by Vladimir Nabokov published in 1969.. Ada began to materialize in 1959, when Nabokov was flirting with two projects, "The Texture of Time" and "Letters from Terra". In 1965, he began to see a link between the two ideas, finally composing a unified novel from February 1966 to October 1968. Ada, or Ardor: A Family Chronicle is not my favorite Nabokov, but, yes, a Nabokov is a Nabokov, so naturally it is preternaturally well-written, is fluent in more languages than you, is better read than you, dresses better, eats better, exercises more, dates all the guys or girls you're too nervous to talk to, never has to worry about money ...Ada, or Ardor: A Family Chronicle [Vladimir Nabokov] on Amazon.com. FREE shipping on qualifying offers. Published two weeks after his seventieth birthday, Ada, or Ardor is one of Nabokov's greatest masterpieces" Ardis Hall—the Ardors and Arbors of Ardis—this is the leitmotiv rippling through Ada, an ample and delightful chronicle, whose principal part is staged in a dream-bright America—for are not our childhood memories comparable to Vineland-born caravelles, indolently encircled by the white birds ...
