

Book Of Engine Tune Up

Book Of Engine Tune Up - The foundation of automotive maintenance is staying on top of your manufacturer's recommended service schedule. These maintenance activities are known as a tune up and can include many different services which are discussed below. This is why the average car tune up cost ranges from $150 to over $1,000 and will depend on which items need to be completed. Find how much does a tune up cost at average, what does a it consist of, where can you get a tune up near you and how to save money. Tune-up intervals vary from one vehicle to another. Most older vehicles with non-electronic ignitions should be tuned every 10,000 to 12,000 miles or every year, whichever comes first. Newer cars with electronic ignition and fuel injection systems are scheduled to go from 25,000 miles to as many as 100,000 miles without needing a major tune-up. Our Service. At Econo Lube N' Tune & Brakes we are more than just an oil change and tune-up center. While each center does provide oil changes and engine maintenance services, Econo Lube N' Tune & Brakes stores also provide complete brake service and general automotive repair.
